

Guernsey calf brings $4700

BY DEBBIE KOONTZ
LANCASTER — Crumdale Finances Rose pleased the crowd of over 400 which gathered for the PA Guernsey Breeder's

Association's 3rd Blue Halter Calf Sale and 50th anniversary sale last Saturday by bringing a whopping $4700. The open heifer, born September 30, 1980, was consigned by Richard and Steve Staner of Windsor and comes from one of their Villa Crest bulls. According to Ginger Myers, celebration committee member, every cow from this bull in the past two generations has been scored excellent. "We have a lot of hope in this calf," she said.

The calf's dam is Kelsos Nuggets Rosalie with a high testing record of 15,083 pounds of milk and 839 pounds of fat.

Rose was purchased by Larry Georgeson of Madison, Wisconsin.

But this calf was not only the top and first calf sold, but was also sold at a price equal to that of the top cow.

Hollow View Top Command Holly, consigned by J. Hammond Dugan of Washington, D.C. and bred by Scott Wolff of Quarryville, was top seller during the anniversary sale.

The bred heifer, due April 7, was bought by Boulder View Farms of Baraboo, Wisconsin.

Holly's dam has a high test of 14,537 pounds of milk and 737 pounds of fat.

Second top seller at the anniversary sale was Keystone Big T Jennifer, bred and consigned by Roger and Kathy Cmapbell of Halifax John Ayars of
