

Md. Grange offers scholarship

WALKERSVILLE, Md. — For the 1981-82 academic year, three $300 Maryland State Grange Past Masters Scholarships will be awarded.

The Scholarship Committee has established general guidelines to be used in the selection of these scholarships:

Qualified applicants interested in the field of agriculture education at a Maryland Community College level will be considered for a $300 scholarship.

Applicant must write at least a 100 word, but not exceed 300 words, resume telling his/her past, present and future plans in agriculture, and list memberships in organizations and offices held, etc.

Applicant must be a high school graduate and a resident of Maryland.

Applicant must have the signature of a guidance counselor, a school administrator and two teachers.

The Committee will review all applications.

All applications must be typewritten and have the applicant's name, address, age and phone number on the front of the application.

Previous winners are eligible to apply again.

Winners will be asked, but not required, to attend the Maryland State Grange Agriculture Banquet on October 16, 1981, at 7 p.m. at the Sheraton Inn in Frederick, Maryland.

Deadline for applications for the 1981-82 academic year is August 1, 1981.

Send applications to: Mr. Paul S. Stull, P.O. Box 154, Walkersville, Maryland 21793, phone 301/898-9345

Md. names top FFA land judges

QUEEN ANNE, Md. — The Future Farmers of America team from Queen Anne's High School placed first in the state FFA land judging contest last Saturday.

Thirty-eight individuals representing nine schools, eight

FFA regions and one 4-H team competed in the event. Teams rated the soil's suitability for both agricultural and urban uses at the University of Maryland's Hopkins farm in Montgomery County.

High scoring individual was Bill
