

Kid's KOrner

Parents seem to love to say, "Kids will be kids," whenever you're bad. Ever wonder if goats say that about their young too when they're ornery like the little fellow above? But whether you're a human kid or a furry kid with four legs, you're sure to enjoy all the games we have for you this week.

Kids, have you ever heard of tacos? Have you ever eaten them? Now's your chance.

Tacos are a delicious Mexican food, especially popular in the southwestern part of the country.

Though they're a little messy to eat, that is until you learn how to hold them, they are sure fun to make. Try them!

TACOS

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1 green pepper
- mustard
- salt and pepper
- hot sauce, dash
- red pepper, dash
- Worcestershire sauce
- 1 small onion
- 1 8 ounce tomato sauce
- little ketchup
- garlic salt, dash
- chili powder, dash
- Parmesan cheese, dash

Cook and simmer the above ingredients about 15 minutes. Serve on a warm taco shell and add: shredded lettuce, pieces of tomato, chopped onion, and shredded American cheese or cheese to your taste. Serves 8.

For dessert, try this yummy ice cream pie.

ICE CREAM PIE

- 1/3 cup of peanut butter
- 1/3 cup of white Karo syrup
- 2 cups of Rice Krispies

Press into pie plate. Fill with favorite ice cream and put in freezer. Top with cool whip, crushed peanuts and marashino cherries.
