Fulton Grange meets

OAKRYN — Fulton Grange No. 66 met in regular session on Monday evening here at the Hall. In the absence of the regular Master Thomas C. Galbreath, David Wissler presided at the business meeting.

The first four degrees were conferred upon a class of twelve candidates at a special meeting held last Saturday.

Fulton Grange gave a ten dollar donation to the Lancaster County Dairy Princess Fund, a ten dollar donation to the National Grange Youth Leadership Fund, and a two hundred dollar donation to the Pennsylvania State Grange Headquarters Improvement Fund. They also decided to enter the State Grange volleyball contest.

The lecturer, Mrs. Jesse Wood, introduced Colleen T. Kelly, senior horticulturist and Brian Staeger, senior agronomist for A D Soil Systems, West Chester, who showed slides and spoke on "Agricultural Utilization of Sewage Sludge." They explained their program which is free to local farmers who have a permit from the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources. It takes three or four months to process a request. The sludge is treated by the city of Philadelphia's sludge treatment program and handled according to state regulations.

The program also included group singing "The Dear Old Farm" and a reading "What's Up" by Linda Wood.

The topic for the next meeting, May 11, will be Ritualism.
