

Little I

Lori Coon, Worthington, Armstrong County, said she picked swine to show in her first livestock show. The sophomore in animal production said she thought they'd be easiest! She walked away with the reserve champion fitter honors.

York County's Charla Janney, the 1980 Lamb and Wool Queen and this year's Suffolk Queen, tackled the job of showing this Polled Hereford bull — her first attempt at showing a beef animal. She was chosen as the reserve champion showman and noted "it's sure different than showing sheep".

Reserve champion horse showman and fitter is Cindy Franklin, Murrysville, Westmoreland County. She is a junior animal bioscience major at Penn State.
