The banquet was then adjourned with the FFA closing ceremonies.

USDA charges R.I. packer with P&S violations

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Johnston Packing Co., Inc., Johnston, Rhode Island, has been charged by the U.S. Department of Agriculture with violating bonding requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act.

The firm buys livestock for slaughter from Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

In an administrative complaint, USDA charges the firm with failing to maintain a reasonable bond despite being notified that adequate bonding was required to secure its livestock obligations.

James L. Smith, P&S official, said the firm has the right to a hearing. If the charges are proved, Smith explained, the firm would be placed under a cease and desist order and could be assessed civil penalties.

The P&S Act is a fair trade practices law administered by USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. It promotes fair and open competition in the marketing of livestock, meat and poultry.
