Two new Time-Mizer Self-Propelleds offer productivity features from Powr-Mizer Pull-Type Forage Harvesters

The new 210-hp 5720 and 275-hp 5820 Time-Mizer Self-Propelleds help you make the most of harvesting time. You'll be able to cut more acres per day, more tons per hour while keeping that clean, uniform cut you've come to expect.

Their time-efficient design starts with a 40-knife Dura-Drum™ cutterhead. These segmented knives increase cutting efficiency and cut through thick crop mat hundreds of times every second.

The Time-Mizers also feature John Deere's Quick-Adjust stationary knife. You can set the stationary knife with one wrench and a few turns in just minutes. So easy to do you'll do it more often. To make sure you're getting that clean, uniform cut every day, there's the knife sharpener. It sharpens the Dura-Drum cutterhead in a true cylinder, keeping that factory-fresh bevel every time you sharpen.

Stop by and let us show you the 5720 and 5820 Time-Mizer difference.
