Belknap Auction suspended

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Belknap Livestock Market, Inc., Dayton, had been suspended by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and ordered to stop violating fair trade practice requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act. The suspension, which began June 7 and lasted for 14 days.

The firm, registered with USDA as a market agency to sell livestock in commerce, operates in western Pennsylvania.

Administrative Law Judge Victor Palmer ordered the firm to cease and desist from:

—engaging directly or indirectly in any practice to obtain money from buyers or sellers of livestock under false pretenses;

—misrepresenting or helping to misrepresent the place where a purchase or sale was made or the procedures involved in those transactions; and —making or issuing any sales documents or collecting on the basis of those documents when they are not correct or do not show the true nature of the transaction.

—Judge Palmer also ordered the firm to maintain accurate records which show the true nature of their livestock transactions.

James L. Smith P&S official, said the firm consented to the order, waived its right to a hearing and neither admitted nor denied the charges in USDA's administrative complaint.
