

Nissley concert and wine tasting program on Sunday

BAINBRIDGE — The Nissley Vineyards winery at Bainbridge will be the site for "Meadow Rhythms and Wine Sunday," a special afternoon of music and family fun from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

An exciting group of children called "Sounds of Suzuki" will perform a violin concert at 2-3 p.m. on the lawn of the winery. The group derives its name from the Talent Education of "Suzuki" method of instructing very young children to play the violin.

Starting as young as 2 years old, the children come primarily from Harrisburg, Lancaster, Hershey a and Elizabethtown. Their teacher, Jane Shellnutt Elkov, performs frequently in the Harrisburg area and is a member of the Harrisburg Symphony.

As a change of pace, the 30 member, all adult "Bainbridge Band" will fill the air with a pops concert of favorite Hollywood and Broadway tunes from 4-6 p.m.

Inside the winery, the J. Richard Nissley family will be conducting tasting of their award winning wines such as the gold medal white wine called Aurora. The tastings will be held until 5 p.m. amidst the 4,000 gallon tanks used for producing and storing the Nissley wines.

Wine lovers will be especially interested in two white wines recently released by Nissley Vineyards — Chardonnay and Johannisberger Riesling. Although Chardonnay and Riesling grapes are grown widely in Europe and California, the Southeastern Pennsylvania climate has, until recently, been considered hostile to these varieties. In fact, Nissley Vineyards is the first winery in Lancaster County to produce these wines.

All of the Nissley wines will be available to enjoy with picnic snacks prepared and served by the Haldeman Mansion Preservation Society. Also, homemade root beer and lemonade will be available to quench the thirsts of persons under 21.

Patty Longenecker of the Berry Patch near Elizabethtown will be on hand with baskets and wreaths in order to demonstrate that vines can be used for more than growing fruit.

From grape vines pruned at Nissley Vineyards, Mrs. Longenecker has crafted a unique basket which the Society will stuff with picnic supplies and present as a special door prize.

Proceeds from "Meadow

Rhythms and Wine Sunday" will be applied toward continuing renovations of the Haldeman Mansion in Locust Grove.

Admission to this event is $1.00 per person. Picnic snacks and beverages are extra. It is recommended that you bring your own lawn chair or blanket.

Nissley Vineyards is located near Bainbridge, Pa. To reach the winery, turn off Rt. 441 at Wickersham Road (eight miles north of Columbia and ten miles south of Middletown), then follow the signs.
