

Baby parade Thursday at Solanco.

QUARRYVILLE— A Baby Parade will be held Thursday at 7 p.m., weather permitting, in conjunction with the Solanco Fair.

Any child 6 years of age and under is eligible to participate.

Preregistration with entry blanks are required. The entry blanks must be mailed to Mrs. Walter F. Koch Jr., R3, Box 51, Quarryville, Pa. 17556, or presented to the fair office by 12 noon on Wednesday.

While the parade begins at 7 p.m. Thursday, entrants must report by 6 p.m. and prejudging begins at 6:15 p.m. on the fair grounds.

Judging is based equally on four factors — work and effort, costuming, overall theme and appearance, and decorative creativity.

Three parade divisions are planned.

Division A is the Walking Division. Classes include youngest, best imitation of nursery rhyme or fairy tale, best characterization, most original, best team, prettiest girl and most handsome boy.

A grand prize of $25 will be given for the best float.

Division B is the Float Division. Classes include most beautiful, best imitation of nursery rhyme or fairy tale, most original, best characterization and miscellaneous.

Division C includes vehicles on wheels. Classes include best carried out theme, most original and miscellaneous.

Rain date for the baby parade is Friday at 10 a.m.

Highlights of the fair
