

Peek-a-boo; I see you

LANCASTER — Dairy animals, particularly when young, are playful by nature.

At times, they can be seen playing different types of games — barnyard butting, peek-a-boo or hide-and-go-seek.

Several of the photos received in Lancaster Farming's Dairy Month Photo Contest illustrate this playful nature.

The photo of the goat peeking through the fence boards was sent in by Mrs. Jane Dietle, of Kingsville, Md.

Almost hidden in the underbrush is the calf who appears to be playing a game of natural camouflage. If it wasn't for the white blaze, it would be almost hidden. It was sent in by Nancy McMahon, of Avondale.

Finally, even youngsters like to play peek-a-boo. In the photo submitted by Dale Hostetter, of Rt. 1, Cochranville, a fresh-air visitor happily peers out from behind his newly-found bovine friend.
