Patty Greek shows FFA Holstein champ

York — Showmanship judge Jim Shaw said he reluctantly had to turn to "nut-picking" to make the final decision for a show technique winner during heated competition at the York Fair's FFA dairy exhibit.

Patty Greek, R2 Delta, long-time youth exhibitor, finally won the honor, capping off a successful day in which she also took the FFA Holstein senior and grand championship.

Finishing just a breath behind came reserve senior and grand winner Barbara Kilgore, R2 Airville, also selected by titting official John Morris as the champion fitter.

Both young ladies are members of the Red Lion FFA and both exhibited three-year-olds for their winning cow entries.—JB

Crop insurance deadline Sept. 30

LANCASTER — Federal Crop Insurance Corporation will continue to accept applications for the 1982 wheat and barley crop until September 30.

Federal Crop Insurance is an all-risk insurance which covers all natural hazards such as drought, hail, disease, insects, and any other hazards due to weather damage. The insurance guarantees the policy holder an amount of production in bushels and when the insured produces less than his guarantee, he is paid an indemnity for the shortage.

The insurance premium is tax deductible. Policyholders can now choose higher guaranteed production and have a choice of three different levels of coverage, up to 75 percent of the county's average yield.

To find out more about the program, contact the county ASCS office.

All-Season™ ventilation by JAMESWAY®

Helps hogs gain

Fresh air, even temperatures reduce stress; provide a healthy environment that helps improve production. When it's hot, evaporative cooling lowers temperatures to add comfort. In cooler seasons, incoming air blends with warmer inside air. Simply set the system and then it's automatic. Controls drafts, dead air pockets, condensation. Systems tailored to your needs.
