

York Fair picks Open Breeding Swine champs

Named the champion Hampshire barrow as well as champion barrow overall at the York Fair was this entry by John Strawbridge.

Strawbridge added to his York Fair winnings with this Hampshire pair that won both their division honors and the ribbons for best pair overall.

Darlene and Roger Bankert took home most of the York Fair's Duroc hog awards, including ribbons for this champion boar.

Bankert got the judge's nod for champion in the Duroc gilt division.

Taking the purple rosette in the Chester White barrow division was Roger Bankert.

Named the champion Duroc barrow, and reserve champion barrow overall, was this market entry of Bankert's.

In the open class hog competition at the York Fair, Jim Parlette captured championships in both the Chester White and the Spotted divisions.

