

4-H winners

(Continued from Page D2)

Dorothy Stroz

as president, vice president, secretary, news reporter, and game leader. She also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state health contest winner completed projects in health, conservation, clothing, foods, gardening, safety, teen leadership, citizenship, crafts, and photography.

Locally, she took part in the 4-H public speaking and demonstration contests, foods revue, officers training, fashion revue, roundup, and leaders banquet.

Dorothy also participated in the Regional 4-H Demonstration Contest, Wool Contest, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, State 4-H Achievement Days, State 4-H Capital Days, Ag Progress Days, and State Farm Show.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, she said: "The ability to speak in front of an audience is something I will be able to use throughout my life."

Columbia County

Ann Haladay

Ann Marie Haladay

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haladay, Anne Marie is a junior at the Southern Columbia Area High School. She has been a 4-H member for eight years.

A member of the Roaring Creek Valley 4-H Club, she served as president, vice president, secretary, news reporter, and song and game leaders.

The state food preservation contest winner completed projects in canning, freezing, jams, jellies, clothing, flowers, gardening, strawberries, and beef.

Locally, Ann Marie took part in the 4-H day camps, dress revue, Rural Life Sunday, demonstration day, dress revue, roundup, fair, and exchange program.

She also participated in Ag Progress Days, District 4-H Camp, State 4-H Capital Days, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, and State 4-H Achievement Days.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Ann Marie said: "Through 4-H I have gained many skills in the area of leadership. Club work also taught me to effectively help others."

Doug Kelchner

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kelchner, he is a junior at the

Doug Kelchner

Central Columbia High School. He has been a 4-H member for nine years.

A member of the Orangeville 4-H Club, Doug served as president, secretary, treasurer, game leader, and teen leader.

The state safety contest winner completed projects in wildlife conservation and safety, bicycle, forestry, health, riflery, teen leadership, pet care, photography, automotive, and entomology.

Locally, he took part in 4-H officers training, leaders and bankers dinner, demonstration day, Rural Life Sunday, day camp, achievement show, and fair.

Doug also participated in the Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Conference, Regional 4-H Demonstration Day, District 4-H Camp, Interstate 4-H Exchange Program, State 4-H Capital Days, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, and State 4-H Achievement Days.

"Club work has helped me to overcome my fear of speaking to groups. It also enabled me to travel extensively and exchange ideas with other 4-H members," Doug said.

Cumberland County

UNIVERSITY PARK — Three young adults were named state contest winners from Cumberland County.

Named were John Wardle, 17, of R5, Carlisle, state winner in citizenship; Karen Kuntz, 18, of 108 Long's Gap Road, Carlisle, winner in the consumer education contest; and Dede King, 16, of R2, Mechanicsburg, state horse winner.

John and Karen will receive expense-paid trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29-December 3. Dede will be eligible to attend the national conference. All compete for awards at the national level.

John Wardle

John Wardle

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wardle, John is a senior at the Big Spring High School. He has been a 4-H member for nine years.

A member of the Cumberland County 4-H Baby Beef Club, he served as president and vice president. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state citizenship contest winner completed projects in baby beef, sweet corn, meats, livestock judging, physical fitness, electric, and tractor maintenance.

Locally, John took part in the 4-H fun day, leadership training workshop, leaders banquet, and achievement program.

He also participated in District 4-H Camp, Regional 4-H Demonstration Contest, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, State 4-H Capital Days, and State 4-H Achievement Days. In 1980 he was named Cumberland County's Outstanding 4-H Boy.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, John said: "Club work aided me in developing leadership skills. It also helped me to study agriculture as a career."

Karen Kuntz

Karen Kuntz

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Kuntz, Jr., she is a senior at the Carlisle High School. She has been a 4-H member for nine years.

A member of the Carlisle Springs 4-H Club, Karen served as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, news reporter, and teen leader.

The state consumer education contest winner completed projects in clothing, photography, consumer education, home management, teen leadership, wildlife, safety, health, and babysitting.

Locally, she took part in 4-H demonstration contest, fashion revue, officers training, achievement night, fund day, tour, picnic, and leader training.

Karen also participated in District 4-H Camp, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, State 4-H Capital Days, Citizenship Short Course, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, and State 4-H Achievement Days.

"Club work helped me to overcome shyness. It also helped me learn new skills and get involved in many worthwhile projects and activities," said Karen.

Dede King

Dede King

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul King, Dede is a junior at the Cumberland Valley High School. She has been a 4-H member for six years.

A member of four Cumberland County 4-H Clubs, she served as president, news reporter, secretary, treasurer, and teen leader.

The state horse contest winner completed projects in numerous units of horse production, mounted drill team, sewing, photography, and flowers.

Locally, she took part in the 4-H leaders training, demonstration workshop, fashion revue, fun day, and exchange program.

Dede also participated in the Regional 4-H Demonstration Day, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, State Farm Show and State 4-H Achievement Days.

"Through 4-H, I have learned to become more comfortable when speaking before groups. I also have learned many skills through project work," points out Dede.

Franklin County

Connie Stull

UNIVERSITY PARK — Connie Stull, 17, of 7432 Rockhill Road, Waynesboro, was named state swine contest winner.

Connie will be eligible to attend National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29-December 3, and compete for awards at the national level.

Support of the swine project is provided by the Friends of National 4-H Council.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Berlin Stull, she is a senior at the Waynesboro Senior High School. She has been a 4-H member for eight years.

A member of five Franklin County 4-H Clubs, she served as president, vice president, secretary, news reporter, and treasurer. She also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state swine contest winner completed projects in beef, swine, sheep, sewing, tractor maintenance, foods, crafts, and teen leadership.

Locally, she took part in the 4-H roundup, achievement night, fair, county retreat, exchange trip, and officers training.

Connie also participated in the Regional 4-H Dress Revue, Regional 4-H Teen Leaders Retreat, State 4-H Achievement Days, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, State Farm Show, and Citizenship Short Course.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Connie said: "Club work has helped teach me to work effectively with others. It also taught me the meaning of responsibility."

Huntingdon County

UNIVERSITY PARK — Gordon Trimer, 18, of R1, Alexandria, was named state wildlife and fisheries contest winner.

If selected as a national winner, Gordon will receive an expense-paid trip to the North American Wildlife Conference next spring in Portland, Oregon.

Support of the wildlife and fisheries project is provided by the U.S. Department of Interior's Fish and Wildlife Service.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Trimer, he is employed as a groundskeeper. He has been a 4-H member for eight years.

A member of the County Lovers

Gordon Trimer

4-H Club, he served as president and treasurer. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state wildlife and fishery contest winner completed projects in wildlife conservation, dairy, forestry, gardening, tractor maintenance, safety, goats, and cooking.

Locally, he took part in the 4-H demonstration night, street camping, county 4-H days, leaders banquet, and achievement night.

Gordon also participated in the District 4-H Camp, State 4-H Capital Days, State 4-H Achievement Days, and Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress. In 1980 he was named the outstanding 4-H Boy in Huntingdon County.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, the contest winner said: "Club work has given me an opportunity to develop responsibilities."

Jefferson County

Tim Hicks

UNIVERSITY PARK — Tim Hicks, 19, of R2, Brockway, was named state automotive contest winner.

Support of the automotive project is provided by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. James Grant, he is a graduate of the DuBois School of Trades. He has been a 4-H member for 11 years.

A member of the Beechwoods 4-H Club, he served as president and vice president. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

The state automotive contest winner completed projects in automotive careers, teen leadership, and field corn.

Locally, he took part in the 4-H county council, officers training, day camp, demonstration contest, and recreation team.

Tim also participated in the Regional 4-H Camp, Interstate 4-H Exchange Program, and State 4-H Achievement Days.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Tim said: "Club work taught me numerous skills I am now using in my farming operation. It also has shown me the meaning of responsibility."

He is one of 41 Commonwealth 4-

(Turn to Page D4)