

Lindeu Farms sweeps N.Y. Simmental show

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — A large and enthusiastic crowd gathered as the 2nd Simmental show got underway.

Linden Farms, LaGrangeville, New York, fared well capturing the coveted awards of grand champion female, reserve champion female, and grand champion bull.

In the group classes, Linden Farms took home the silver in the following classes: Pair of Yearlings, Breeder's Herd, Best Five Head and New York Special.

The reserve champion bull was exhibited by Whitney Hill Simmentals, Wolcott, New York. Whitney Hill was also the premier exhibitor.

Alexandar Farms of Interlaken, New York won the Pair of Calves class and C-Bar Farm of LaGrangeville, New York won the Amateur-Owner-Breeder class.

Ken White, Simme Valley Ranch, Groton, New York, and Jim Ford, Sidehill Farm, Angelica, New York, both members of the New York Simmental Association, took pictures of the show.

A New York Simmental Association Central and Western Branch meeting followed the show at which time the upcoming N.Y.S.A. sponsored sales were discussed. There will be an all simmental club calf and female sale in Angelica at the Angelica sales barn on October 31, at 1 p.m.

The grand champion Simmental bull was another Linden Farms entry.

Whitney Hills Simmentals, Wolcott, New York, exhibited the reserve grand champion bull and received the premier exhibitor award.

Linden Farms, Lagrangeville, N.Y. exhibited the grand champion female at the 1981 New York State Fair held recently in Syracuse.

Glatfelter shares cost of tree seedlings

SPRING GROVE — Landowners are reminded that it is time to plan for tree planting to be done in the spring of 1982.

The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, Spring Grove, will share, on a 50-50 basis, the cost of seedlings with interested landowners. Since the inception of the Company program in 1951, nearly 17 million seedlings have been furnished to landowners in these south central Pennsylvania counties: Adams, Berks, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Fulton, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry, Schuylkill and York.

Tree seedlings available this year under the Glatfelter program are Austrian pine, Virginia pine, Japanese larch, white pine, Norway spruce, white spruce and pitch pine. Orders now being accepted will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The Glatfelter Company imposes no restrictions of any kind, but landowners planting these trees must comply with state regulations regarding these trees.

The Glatfelter program has an overall dollar limitation. Seedling orders will be accepted by the Division on a first come basis until the Glatfelter program dollar limit has been reached.

For information about placing an order, see your local County Agent, your Bureau of Forestry District office or write directly to The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, Spring Grove, PA 17362.
