Decorating idea: Use harvest bounty to beautify home

LANCASTER — Why wait for the holidays to brighten your home with autumn's bounty? Vegetables, fruits, and flowers are plentiful now, and there are many decorative ways to display them. Create a floral tablescape using bud vases or discarded pill bottles, letting each container hold a single bloom. If you don't have pill bottles, you can use apples. Core the apple and insert a single flower with a bit of green. For a smaller hole, pierce the fruit with a knitting needle.

Arrange apples in a bowl or fruit basket for all family members to enjoy. Wash the fruit under warm running water, then dry and polish by rubbing the skins gently. Place bowls in various places throughout the house.

Apples also make great candleholders. Hollow out apples to hold different size candles. Place a votive candle in a large hole, or a taper in a smaller one. Make sure apples set securely, first.

Baskets make excellent containers for fall centerpieces. Try an arrangement of peppers, chrysanthemums and nuts; broccoli, cauliflower and peppers; or gourds and leaves in mushroom baskets.

Winter squash combines well with fall leaves and nuts in a small basket. Or, fill a small market basket with rolls of various kinds, tucking in wheat and nuts. Add a bow of country fabric.

Butternut, acorn squashes and cabbage make interesting vases. Cut the top off a squash and hollow out the inside. Add water and arrange flowers. You could also cut off the top and hollow out the inside of a cabbage for an arrangement, but insert a glass to hold water.

You could really capture the spirit of fall by placing a small pumpkin on a platter and surrounding it with ears of Indian corn, gourds and nuts.

Remember, autumn decorations should be simple enough for your own and your family's enjoyment. Arrangements should look casual, with no fussing about what flower goes here and what piece of fruit goes there. And by all means, be prepared to replace a few disappearing apples.
