

Penn State livestock team ranks 4th in nation

LANCASTER — Winning fourth place in the nation, and the individual championship, were achievements of Penn State students competing in the National Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest held recently at Louisville, Ky.

The individual champion was Brenda A. Werner of R2, Hanover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale J. Werner. Mrs. Werner is a junior majoring in animal production.

The Penn State team ranked first in judging sheep, third in beef cattle, and 15th in swine. The top five teams nationally were Oklahoma State, Iowa State, North Dakota State, Penn State and California State at Fresno.

As national champion, Brenda Werner placed first in swine, first in giving oral reasons, sixth in beef cattle, and seventh in judging sheep.

In addition to Ms. Werner, the team included the following:

Mary E. Streett of Box 52, New London, a junior in animal production. Mary is the daughter of Dr. C. Spencer Streett. She placed seventh in judging beef cattle and tied for 10th in judging swine and in overall scoring.

Dale A. Rains of R2, Mercer, a senior in animal production and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Rains.

Robert L. Hough of Star Route, Alexandria, a senior in animal production and the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.V. Hough.

Lee J. Johnston of R2, New Alexandria, a senior in animal production and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Johnston.

Erskine H. Cash, Penn State coach, spoke of Ms. Werner's first place win as "an amazing 954 points out of a possible 1,000."

She is a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society for scholarship and has a 3.5 overall average out of a possible 4.0 at Penn State. In 1978 Ms. Werner was high individual in 4-H Achievement Days at Penn State and went on to win third place in national 4-H achievement competition.

The assistant coach was Daniel Loy of Centre Hall, graduate assistant in animal industry.

Fourth in the nation is the ranking won by this 1981 livestock judging team at Penn
