York poultry team places eighth

YORK — The York County 4-H Poultry Judging Team recently received 8th place in overall team competition when they competed against 21 teams at the National 4-H Poultry Judging Contest in Louisville, KY.

Team members are Judy and Linda Waltersdorff, York; Tim Flory, Red Lion; and Mark Ebaugh, Delta. The coaches are Leroy Bowles, Red Lion and Roxanne Price, Penn State University Extension Service.

The team members judged live production hens, dressed market birds, interior and exterior egg quality and broken out egg quality.

In the judging areas, the team placed 10th in Market Egg and 3rd in market poultry. Judy Waltersdorff was recognized for placing 10th high individual in market poultry, 4th high individual in egg production and 4th individual in the overall competition.

The team and coaches would like to express their appreciation to the business and poultry farms that opened their facilities to the team for practices. Reisinger Poultry, York; Paul Musser, Manchester; Lester Holtzinger, Red Lion; William Glass, Airville; Carroll Rohrbaugh, Seven Valleys; James Eisenhour, Wellsville, and Waltersdorff's Grade A Eggs, York.

Feathered Friends club honors members

FLEMINGTON, N.J. — The Hunterdon County Feathered Friends 4-H Waterfowl 4-H Club held their second annual awards dinner recently at the Extension Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nief of Flemington were the guests of honor.

Each club member received their year pin. In addition, the following special club awards were given.

Record book honors went to Cheryl Christopher of Flemington, Junior Division and Cheryl Ernst from Flemington Senior Division.

Kathy Gilligan was awarded the Most Promising first-year member.

Tammy Woske, a Whitehouse Station resident, walked away with three club awards; Most Involved Member, Best Senior Demonstration, and the club leadership award. Tammy's sister Wendy had the club's best Junior Demonstration. Lorrie Nief of Flemington was the Most Helpful 4-H'er Award recipient.

The Dr. Doolittle Award and Most Dependable Member Award were presented to Brian Pullen.

Tracy Connors received recognition honors for being the club's Most Improved member. Junior and Senior Care and Management awards were given to Jenniter Ackerman and Jeff Carden, respectively.

The club's top award, the Top Clover, was received by Kate Plum of Whitehouse Station. Linda Ackerman was honored for being the Most Helpful Parent.

Shelli Rosania was recognized as the best all around 4-H'er.
