Lehigh judging team places 10th in nation

ALLENTOWN — Winning tenth place in the nation was the achievement of four Lehigh County 4-H'ers competing in the National 4-H Livestock Judging Contest held recently at Louisville, Kentucky.

The Lehigh County 4-H team, also ranked third in beef cattle judging, 19th in swine judging, 20th in sheep judging and 10th in oral reasons. There were 34 teams competing from across the nation. The top five teams were Ohio, Minnesota, Illinois, Colorado and Indiana.

The team members who competed were: Diane Krause, R3, Slatington, a freshman in animal production at Penn State. Diane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krause. She placed ninth in judging beef cattle and eighth in giving oral reasons out of 136 contestants.

Jane Sikorski, R2, Emmaus, is a senior at Emmaus High School. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sikorski. She was tied for 12th high individual in the contest with a score of 664 points out of a possible 750. She was also tied for 15th in judging beef cattle and tied for 11th in swine judging.

Bonnie Wessner, Route 2, New Tripoli, is a sophomore at Northwestern High School. Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Wessner. She placed fourth judging beef cattle and 31st in overall scoring.

Willi Wilson, R2, Mertztown, is a junior at Emmaus High School. Willi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson. He was tied for 34th in giving oral reasons.

Lehigh County's 4-H Livestock Team was eligible to compete at the national level because they had won first place at a state 4-H competition in August. The team also represented Pennsylvania at four other contests in the nation. They competed at the Eastern States Exposition and the Virginia State Fair in September placing first in both contests and they also judged at the Keystone International Livestock Expo and the Eastern National Livestock Show in October placing third in both contests.

The team was coached by Greg Snyder of New Tripoli; Gail Snyder, New Tripoli and Kathy Listwak, Lehigh County 4-H Coordinator.
