

Buescher to address Foundation's annual meeting

LANCASTER — Walt Buescher, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Farm and Home Foundation on January 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Farm and Home

Center, Lancaster. A native of Indiana, Buescher is retired from more than a three-decade career in the farm equipment industry. His subject will be The American Dream, a "three cheers for America" presentation combining humor with a serious message. His visit is sponsored by Sperry New Holland. In 1974, Buescher was named Marketing Man-of-the Year by the National Agri-Marketing Association. For the past quarter of a century, he has been in demand as a public speaker throughout the United States and Canada. Few speakers outside of the political world have addressed more farm audiences over that period. He and his wife live at Pigeon Forge in the Smokey mountains of Tennessee, located between Knoxville and Gatlinburg. They have four children.
