Horse clubs recognize members, Christmas

LANCASTER — Lancaster County 4-H horse clubs celebrated Christmas cheer already this year with a recognition banquet at the Farm and Home Center in early December.

Members, leaders and families from nine clubs gathered for the event; the clubs being: Boots and Saddle, Production, Broken Bit, Rough Riders, Saddle Cinches, Sequoia Riders, Silver Spurs, Silver Shoes, and Pegasus.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Richard Harclerode. Presenting programs for the participants were Donna Lucidi, 4-H agent, and Kendy Allen, leader of Saddle Cinches who presented a slide presentation.

Awards for being named state winners went to Nikki Brewer, Daphne Immel, Brook Sweigart, Ken Sherlaw, Kris Buck, Alida Farrington, and Valerie High.

Special recognition went to members of the horse judging team: Kris Buck, Gretchen Döner, Wendy Greist and Valerie High; and the horse bowl team: Tracey Fackler, Lowell Mummau, Janine Shank, and Esther Wittel.

Recognized for outstanding leadership were: Dan and Rose Fellenbaum, Jim and Mary Jo Hickey, Ray Hamilton and Jim and Joyce Watts of the Boots and Saddle Club; Merrill and Jean Spahn of the Production Club; Pete and Jean Immek; Robert Gregory, and Jeff and Natalie Kline of the
