

Lucky Jonathan Kurtz of Fleetwood stands beside the barn Santa delivered for him at a friend's house. He already has one cow and four bales of hay to house in the barn.

Santa calls boy

milking a cow and for housing several calves.

Jonathan plans to increase his herd when he gets more money — maybe next Christmas.

In the rear of the barn is a door that opens so he can store machinery and hay. He already has four bales and hopes, with careful recycling, that they will last all winter. His cow isn't that hungry anyway.

Maybe Santa will bring him more hay and cows next year if he's a good boy; but for now, thank you Santa for being so good to a country boy.
