Stir Your Manure Pit With This Bull-Strong Propeller & Chopping Knife

You now take many hours to stir the solids into pumpable slurry when you want to haul manure. Maybe days. And unfortunately, your present equipment can't get all the solids out.

If that sounds like your problem, you'll want to call for a rental pump from US Farm Systems of Pennsylvania. This pump has a propeller and chopping knife combination that changes direction independently of the discharge nozzle. For example, you can splash the top crust to the right while the propeller under the surface pushes waves of mixing slurry to the left.

To get more information about how this rental pump can help you get a nasty job done this spring write:
