

Venango youth earns poultry award

UNIVERSITY PARK — Kimberley Kelly, 18, of R1, Harrisville, who has compiled an outstanding record in 4-H work, was named a state winner for her poultry project.

She will be eligible to attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kelly, Jr., Kimberley has been a 4-H member for 10 years.

A member of the Pone Hill Star Trackers 4-H Club and the Venango County 4-H Exchange Club, she has served as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and news reporter. She also assists as a junior leader for forestry, geology, and arts and crafts projects.

projects in poultry, bantams, ducks, rabbit production, pet care, baking, sewing, photography, rocketry, forestry, geology, and crocheting.

Locally, she has taken part in county council activities, 4-H super club, beautification day, county fair, Rural Life Sunday, teen leaders retreat, and a citizenship retreat.

Kimberley also participated in State 4-H Capital Days, Pennsylvania 4-H Leadership Congress, Farm Show, and State 4-H Achievement Days.

Commenting on the values of the educational youth program, Kimberley said: "4-H has taught me that, the harder you work for something the more likely you are to achieve it."

Wyoming Co. youth wins forestry award

UNIVERSITY PARK — Vince Sickler, 16, of R1, Falls, has been named state forestry contest winner in the 1982 4-H National Awards Program.

He will receive an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago.

Support of the 4-H forestry program is provided by International Paper Company.

The son of Mildred Sickler, Vince will be a senior this fall at Wyoming Area High School. He has been a 4-H member for five years.

A member of the Falls Flyers 4-H Club, he has served as president, vice president, and teen leader.

The state forestry winner completed 4-H projects in wildlife, forestry, vegetable gardening, archery, bicycle safety, fire safety, arts and crafts, and photography.

Vince has participated in teen retreats, a regional leader's forum, Citizenship... Washington
