TROY — The 107th annual Troy Fair in Bradford County scheduled for the last week of July was bigger and better than ever this year according to fair officials.

Weather for the fair was perfect for the three days of dairy cattle judging. More youth entries than usual for Tuesday's show of 4H and FFA cattle were noted by Cooperative Extension Agent Orville Yoder who with the assistance of Jake Guffey, Extension Agent, moderated the shows. Approximately 500 cattle were run through the show ring in the three days.

Bradford County Dairy Princess Valerie Moon with her alternates Sheryl Avery and Alisa Smith, were on hand to pass out ribbons and trophies. The trophies and plaques were donated by several businesses, cattle breeders, and cattle clubs.

Judge for the colored breeds was Denny Wolf of Millville, while Tom Dum III of Landisburg placed the Holstein and Brown Swiss breeds.

Grand Champion Holstein for the Youth Show Day was Fack-herd Elevation Brassy bred by Richard and Marilyn Fackard of East Troy, and owned and shown by 11-year-old Terri Fackard. The Fackards carried off blue ribbons in many classes in the Holstein judging on Friday and ended up Premier Breeder and Exhibitor with Richard and Georgia Jenkins of Troy running a close second.

Grand Champion and Senior Champion Holstein ribbons were both taken by Windy-Mont Clyde-Gigi owned and bred by George Fage, Jr. of Columbia Cross Roads.

Reserve Grand Champion and Reserve Senior Champion awards went to Rolling-Valley Brett Ter-Twin bred by the Landis Bros. and owned by Melvin Feifer of Canton and Landis Bros. of Troy.

Holstein Junior Champion went to Fivebrooks Valiant Ginseng bred and owned by Yvonne A. Scott of Troy, and Reserve Junior Champion was Hi-Lev Yan Manstar Aggied bred and owned by Richard and Georgia Jenkins of Troy.

Brown Swiss-Grand Champion and Junior Champion ribbons were won by Conover Hill Improve Donut owned by Joe Andrus of Mt. Lake. Reserve Junior Brown Swiss champion ribbon was given to Kelly King, Troy.

Grand Champion and Junior

Champion of the Ayrshire breed show Thursday was Wyn-Ayr C.F. Nan, bred by David Andrus and shown by Vonda Andrus of Troy.

Reserve Grand Champion and Reserve Junior Champion Brown Swiss was Wyn-Ayr C.F. Fashion bred by Richard F. Winch and owned by Brent Andrus of Troy.

The Grand Champion and Senior Champion Guernsey was LeRoydales Hornets Colleen owned and bred by Brackman

Twin, owned by Landis Brothers and Melvin Peifer of Canton, with Jeff Peifer at halter. They are joined by county dairy princess Valerie Moon.

MAY-CO SILO LINERS

Some Reasons For Using a Liner -

1. Eliminate runoff
2. Wetter silage packs tighter
3. Tighter packed silage makes more Lactic acid
4. Lactic acid increases the D.T.N.
5. Reduces shrinkage
6. Does not heat
7. Does not freeze
8. Does not spoil in hot weather
9. More digestible protein
10. Acid does not eat silo walls
11. The same amount of acres feed more cattle
12. You don't need an additive
13. Can be installed by one person
