

Local dairy farmers will sample UHT milk

BALTIMORE, Md. — Members of the Middle Atlantic Division of Dairymen, Inc. will get the opportunity to taste UHT, the new long shelf life milk, at their district meetings beginning August 11. The UHT plant in Savannah, GA has received approval from the Food and Drug Administration so that the new product is now available to the public. Retail sales are scheduled to begin in Georgia and Florida in August with expectations that the Middle Atlantic area will have access to the new product by mid 1983.

The Middle Atlantic Division has obtained a supply of whole milk and flavored 2 percent low-fat milk for sampling at its district meetings. The brand name chosen for the new milk is "Farm Best". It will be available in whole white milk and 2 percent low-fat milk. The latter comes in white milk and various flavors including vanilla, chocolate, strawberry, banana and fruit punch.

Hancock enters Chester White in nat'l barrow show

AUSTIN, Mn. — Doug Hancock, Honey Grove, Juniata County has entered a Chester White barrow in the 1982 National Barrow Show Production tested Barrow Contest.

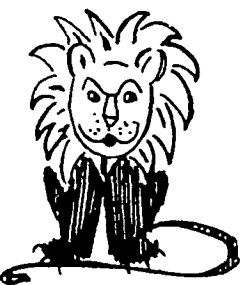

The barrow was delivered to the National Barrow Show Testing Station at New Ulm, Minnesota, and will be fed out along with 780 other barrows from across the United States and Canada. The barrows will be taken off test as they reach 220 pounds live weight and the carcasses will be evaluated at Geo. A. Hormel & Company's Meat Packing Plant in Austin, Minnesota.

The final results will be announced and the winners will be honored at the National Barrow Show held in Austin, Minnesota, Sept. 13-15.

The National Barrow Show is an all breed event which attracts hogs from throughout the United States and visitors from many foreign countries. In addition to championship barrows, the National Barrow Show also features judging of the nation's finest breeding stock which represent the major purebred breeds of hogs in the United States.

By submitting his entry, Doug Hancock a producer of purebred breeding stock, has indicated his intentions to place his hogs in competition in the 1982 Show.

The National Barrow Show is sponsored by Geo. A. Hormel & Company, The National Association of Swine
