

Delaware State Fair posts dairy champs

Grand Champion Female in the Del. Open Ayrshire Show is Piney Grove Gallant Angie, owned by G. Robert Moore, Bear., Del., (left). At right is Judge Gordon Cairns, former Dean of University of Maryland College of Agriculture.

NEWARK, Del. — Exhibitors from four states brought their fancy dairy cattle and goats to vie for ribbons at the recent Delaware State Fair.

Brad and Teresa Wigle of Keymar, Md. showed their Alpine to a Grand Champion Doe title and then went on to be named Best Doe in Show.

Cain-View Farm of Harrington, Del. captured Grand Champion honors with their registered Holstein Cain-View Elevation Rosie. The champ then bested all breeds for Best Udder in Show.

Additional dairy champions of the 1982 Delaware State Fair follows:

- Open Show - Holstein
 - Grand Champion Bull - W Levis Phipps, Wilmington, De
 - Junior Champion Female - Crystal L. Gerardi, Harrington, De
 - Reserve Junior Champion Female - Cain View Farm, Harrington, De
 - Grand and Senior Champion Female - Cain View Farm
 - Grand and Reserve Senior Champion Female - Sam Dixon & Sons, Clayton, De
- Junior Holstein Show
 - Jr. Champion Female - Shawn Cook, Kenton, De
 - Reserve Junior Champion Female - Wade Caldwell, Clayton, De
 - Sr. Champion Female - Laura Phipps, Wilmington, De
 - Reserve Grand and Reserve Senior Champion Female - Mark Phipps, Wilmington, De.
- Open Guernsey Show
 - Grand Champion Bull - Barbara A. McClements, Dover, De
 - Junior Champion Female - Warren N. Shorts, Centreville, Md
 - Reserve Junior Champion Female - Warren N. Shorts, Centreville, Md
 - Grand and Senior Champion Female - University of Delaware, Newark, De
 - Reserve Grand and Reserve Senior Champion Female - University of Delaware
- Junior Guernsey Show
 - Reserve Grand and Junior Champion Female - Barbara A. McClements
 - Grand and Senior Champion Female - Barbara A. McClements

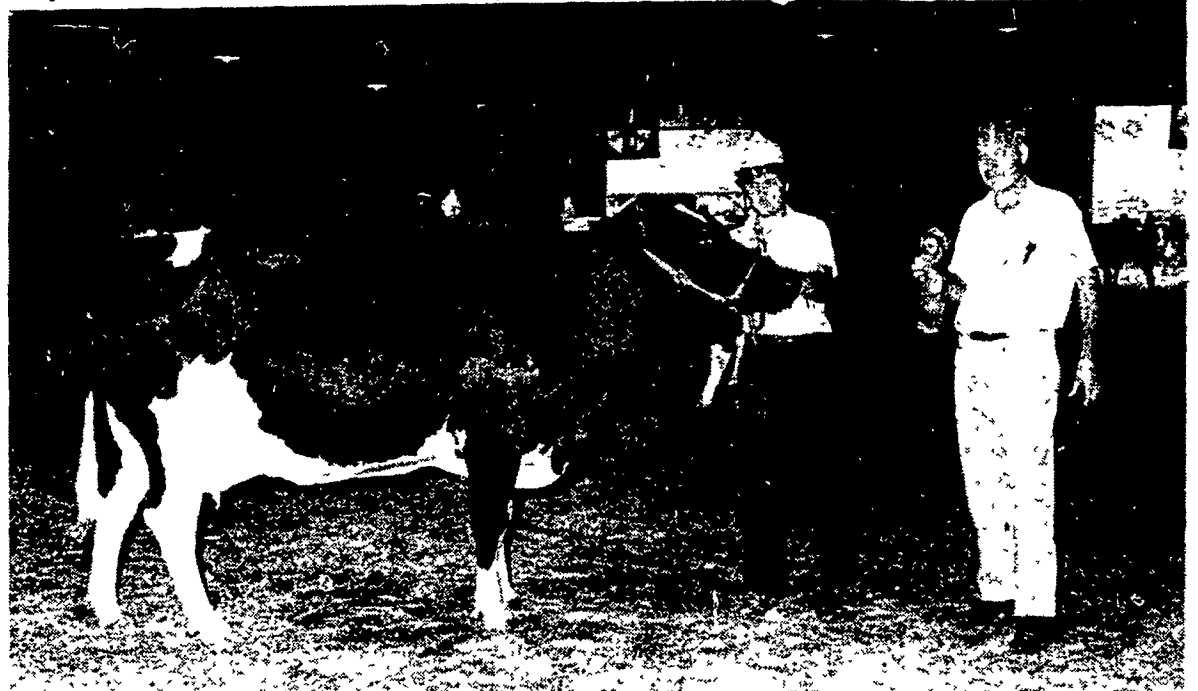

Judge Martha Griner (left) presents blue ribbon in the Recorded Grades to Joanne Dominick, Fogelsville, Pa.

(Turn to Page A34)

Judge Martha Griner presents Grand Champion Alpine Award to Teresa Wigle, Keymar, Md. Wigle's Alpine also was named Best Doe in Show.

Mike Cain, of Harrington, Del., accepts Grand Champion Female Holstein Award for his cow. Cain-View Elevation Rosie, from extension dairy specialist Dr. George Haenlein.

Judge Martha Griner (left) presents Grand Champion Lamanchas ribbon to Jeff Hockenberry, Clear Spring, Md.

Grand champion female in the Open Jersey Show is SV Merry San Prudence, owned by Wayne Stiles, Westminster, Md., (center). At left is Judge Harry Roth; at right is Maryland Jersey Queen Sandi Stern.