TIMONIUM, Md. — Retiring employees and directors, and shippers of high quality milk, were among those honored during the annual meeting of the Middle Atlantic division of Dairymen, Inc., meeting last Saturday at the Hunt Valley Inn.

Herbert W. Wessel, Jr., and John Kilby received plaques of thanks upon their retirement from the board of directors.

Wessel, a 20-year member of the board, headed the cooperative for a dozen years as president, while the organization was still Maryland Cooperative Milk Producers. He and his wife, Mary, received an additional award for his years as president and vice president and a standing ovation during the luncheon program. The Wessels operate Fairmount Farms near Hampstead.

Kilby retired with six years of service to the board, and his sons directors newly-elected representatives.

Harold H. Martin will fill the District 6 seat vacated by retiring John Kilby, while Gary Brauning replaces retiring Herbert Wessel from District 3. Other re-elected directors ratified for additional terms were Charles T. Edwards of District 1, Donald E. Cole for District 2, Emory Kilgore, District 7, and Fred Butler, District 10.

At a brief board reorganizational meeting that followed the adjournment of the annual meeting and luncheon, Fred Butler was re-elected to another term as president, and Samuel Foard, Street, returned to the office of vice president.

Retiring from the Dairymen division board after six years of service was John Kilby, who received an award of appreciation from president Fred Butler, right.
