

Crystal Clutter captures Charolais championship

FARM SHOW — Crystal Clutter, daughter of Earl and Carolyn Clutter of R1 Prosperity in Washington County, left the show ring Wednesday with the grand champion Charolais female award.

DF Hilda 1078, sired by WF Silver Hatchet out of DF Missy, also won the senior champion female title.

Thirteen-year-old Crystal lives with her parents on their 150-acre farm near Pittsburgh.

Grand champion bull title went to Raymond Bratton of R2 McVeytown. Bratton and his son also won the reserve grand champion bull award and the champion bull calf title.

The champion bull, RCC Royal Lindy 3499, weighing 2200 pounds, was sired by HCR Expectation out of RCC R Princess.

Reserve champion female went to Jan Waltz of R6 Manheim. Her entry, SMR Odelle 701, sired by RCC Royal Jaquar out of GDF Miss Crestwood, also won the reserve senior champion female title.

Keye Sweigard of R3 Halifax won the junior champion female with her entry, RCC Royal Heiress 3744.

Precast Concrete UPRIGHT BUNKER SILO

Featuring a single component design for fast installation and completion. The sections bolt together and the use of a sealant placed in the tongue and groove creates a sealed wall surface.

The sections may be dismantled and relocated. Customers may select any length or width in 5' 2" increments.

A special center wall is available to permit placing bunker silos side by side or dividing existing trench silos.

In addition to silage storage, these upright units may be used as retaining walls or manure pits.
