

Farm Credit elects at Kulpsville

KULPSVILLE — The 48th Annual Meeting of the Southeast Production Credit Association and the Southeast Federal Land Bank Association was called to order by Land Bank President Earl Stover on Tuesday night at the Christopher Dock Mennonite High School in Kulpsville, Montgomery County.

Over 400 voting stockholders from the five-county metropolitan area elected directors to both organizations and also selected the 1984 Nominating Committee. Tuesday's meeting was the second of two such gatherings. The first being held at the Oxford Fire Hall, Oxford, Pa. for the convenience of stockholders living in the Chester County area.

Re-elected to a three year term as Director of the Southeast Production Credit Association was Charles E. Frederick of RD New Hope, Bucks County. He owns and operates a dairy and crop farm in Buckingham Township. Frederick is a member of the Bucks County Farmers Association; the Interstate Milk Producers and was an FLBA director for two years.

With his brother and nephew he owns 87 acres and rents 270 acres for their dairy, grain and crop operation. They also fatten 100 hogs a year. He is a member of Agway and is currently serving on the Buckingham Township Planning Commission.

Elected to three-year terms as directors of the Southeast Federal Land Bank Association were H. Ralston Brown, 103 Mount Olivet Rd., Oxford; and Jefferson Yoder, RD 1 Elverson, Chester County.

Brown is currently a director for the Southeast PCA and the FLBA. His term as PCA director will run until 1986. He owns 365 acres and rents an additional 150 for the dairy partnership he operates with his son in East Nottingham Township. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Farmers' Association and serves on the ASCS Committee.
