Montana auctioneer takes world championship

DICKSON, Tenn. — On the eleventh anniversary of his graduation from auctioneering school, Bud Knight celebrated in style — he won the 20th annual World Livestock Auctioneer Championship.

Knight, who was sponsored by Billings Live Stock Commission Co., Billings, Mont., competed against 83 other top-notch auctioneers here at Dickson Livestock Center, Inc., on June 18 for the title.

It was his fifth try for the championship title, and winning it accomplished a goal Knight said he set for himself "the day I got out of auction school." Knight was named Reserve Champion World Livestock Auctioneer in both 1981 and 1982.

"This year was the toughest competition I've ever had," Knight said after the contest. "I'm glad I don't have to do it again."

Once an auctioneer wins the championship, he is no longer eligible to compete again.

For his winning chant in this year's competition, Knight, 45, was awarded an engraved trophy, a $1,000 cash prize and the Championship ring, valued at $1,000. He also received a number of merchandise prizes and awards, including a gold microphone from the Missouri Auction School and the Golden Gavel Award from Reich World Wide College of Auctioneering.

TIMONIUM, Md. — The 1983 edition of the Eastern National Livestock Show will open on October 4 at Timonium, Md. It will feature a Polled Hereford "Standard of Perfection Show" honoring a great breeder of fine cattle, Ernie Tark, owner of Battleground Farm, Salem, N.J.

Tark started his herd in 1951 with Victor Domino cows and a great bull from Ed Moore's Double E Ranch in Mississippi. In 1958, he served as a member of the National Association's Board of Directors, also as President of the Eastern Polled Hereford Breeders Association and a founding member of the New Jersey Polled Hereford Association where he served as a Director and as President.

The "Ernie Tark Standard of Perfection Show" will begin on Friday, Oct. 7 at 7 p.m. with a Social to be held in the Maryland Room of the Hunt Valley Inn, near the show barns. Tickets to the Social can be obtained from Mrs.

Ernie Tark

Jackie Stull, Box 205, Sandy Spring, Md. 20860 (301) 421-9764.

Room reservations can be acquired at the Headquarters Hotel, Hunt Valley Inn (301) 666-7000.

On Saturday, Oct. 8 at high noon, the SOP Show will commence with the presentation of the National Colors and a rendition of patriotic tunes by the famous "Lancaster Fencibles", who were President James Buchanan's personal escort. They are led by Thomas A. Lehman, Adjutant. The Fencibles have appeared at the Lincoln Memorial; Gettysburg; New Market, Va.; Geneva, N.Y., and were with Sherman on his "March to the Sea."

Jim Harris, Senior Vice President of the American Polled Hereford Association will introduce T.D. "Dusty" Rich, President, APHA. Other festivities will follow with the show to start at 12:30 p.m.

Entry forms for the show should be secured from Eastern National Livestock Show, Maryland State Fair Grounds, Timonium, Maryland 21093 (301) 252-3555.
