invitation judging event. In attendance was a total of 45 junior members and 53 seniors. Entrants judged two classes each of beef, sheep and swine, and presented oral reasons on three of those classes.

Officials for the annual contest were Lester Burdette, livestock specialist and Matt Parsons, swine specialist, both from Penn State, and Brenda Werner, Hanover, a former York County 4-H judge and high individual in the 1982 national collegiate contest in Louisville, Ky. Co-chairman for the judging invitational were York 4-H livestock leader Bill Holloway and extension agent Tony Dobrosky.
