

Lancaster Farming

VOL. 28 No. 42

Six Sections

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, August 20, 1983

$7.50 per Year

Penn State's Ag Progress Opens Tuesday

P

No, this rig won't be demonstrated at Ag Progress, but it contrasts with the $20 million in the latest ag technology that will be on display at Penn State. This antique furrow-turner was part of York County's plowing contests featured on pages A20-21.

S

Ag Progress inside

Price of progress .....	A10
Computers .....	A19
Plant Clinic .....	A19
Ask the specialist .....	A19
The only woman .....	B24
Acid rain .....	D 5
Where to go .....	D17
Map .....	D18 & 23
Trellised apples .....	D26
Lancaster County style .....	E 2
Sod-seeded brassicas .....	E22

Plan to be there

AG PROGRESS — Crops in research plots that haven't been wilted or stunted beyond recognition, special guests, $20 million worth of machinery and equipment, some 300 exhibitors, and more than a score of special events and activities await the record crowd of 80,000 or more at Ag Progress Days at Penn State's Rock Springs Research Center Tuesday through Thursday.

Activities on Tuesday and Thursday begin at 9 a.m. and end at 5 p.m. Wednesday hours continue from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Theme of Ag Progress, which is designed to illustrate

(Turn to Page A19)

Features inside

Rough and Tumble .....	A32
Hydroponic lettuce .....	A22
Cherry Hills .....	A30
Horse lover .....	B14
Tips for showing .....	B30
4-H Achievement .....	B34
Old-time blacksmith .....	D 2
Lancaster bull .....	E10
Courageous riders .....	F10
Chianina field day .....	F12
Cheese tradition .....	F18

Southcentral, Eastern Holstein champions crowned

Rothrock 3-year-old wins 'the grand'

BY ROBIN PHILLIPS
Staff Correspondent

KUTZTOWN — A member of the prominent Rothrock herd, R1, Kempton, walked away with top honors last Saturday at the Eastern Pennsylvania Championship Holstein Show held at the Kutztown Fairgrounds.

"Down-Home Pete Sandy", a three-year-old, Straight-Pine Elevation Pete daughter, owned by Bruce L. Rothrock, dazzled judge, Jake Emig, of Shuppensburg, with "the best legs... the best udder..." in the show, as she won the three-year-old class with the best udder, the Senior Championship, and then the Grand Championship over the aged cow, Woodedge Bootmaker Lady, owned by Keystone Farm, Easton.

This was not the first time "Sandy" caught the judge's eye. She was nominated All-American two year old in 1982, and also placed first in the two year old class in 1982 at the Eastern National.

Just fresh as a three year old, "Sandy" is currently milking 122 pounds a day and plans are to super-ovulate and flush her later this year. As a two-year-old, "Sandy" finished with 22,000 pounds of milk and was classified very good-88.

Reserve Championship honors went to the aged cow entry of the Donald Seipt Family, Keystone Farm, Easton. "Woodedge Bootmaker Lady" is a daughter of Placamar Bootmaker out of Woodedge Marquis Ned Lucy. Described as "the epitome of dairyness", by the judge, "Lady" was also awarded Best Udder in her class.

Junior Championship honors went to the Ohlinger Family, R1, Mohrsville, Reu-Hel Farms, as the heifers owned by the two daughters of Elwood and Ruth Ohlinger took the nod for the Junior Championship and the Reserve Championship.

(Turn to Page A27)

With best three females of Southcentral Show are Cornman family, premier breeder and exhibitor, from the left, Creedin, Steve, Debbie, Clarence Jr., Annette and Ellen, with granddaughter, Becky.

Cornmans, Dums share top honors

BY BETH HEMMINGER
Staff Correspondent

CARLISLE — Creedin Cornman and family, also known as Justa Beauty Holsteins, went home from the Southcentral Championship Show last Saturday with several very happy faces and just as many top place ribbons and trophies to match.

The Cornman family garnered several top placings, including the first place three-year-old, first place best three females and captured the Reserve Senior and Reserve Grand Champion of the show.

However, what really brought the smiles when the announcement was made that Justa Beauty Holsteins won the Premier

(Turn to Page A34)

Flanked by Montgomery, Northampton-Lehigh and Berks dairy princesses are Eastern Holstein reserve champion, left, with Donald Seipt, and grand champion with Jack Miller, Rothrock herd manager, and judge Jake Emig.