sale is the fact that they currently have 56 calves out of their 4 top cows by embryo transplant.

However, October 22 also will provide an outstanding opportunity for 4-H and FFA members. Immediately after the Charolais Sale, J.C. Enterprises will offer for the first time at Public Auction, "40 Top Quality Steers with 'Class'".

"J.C." has a commercial cattle herd and purchased four 3/4 Chianina bulls at the Denver Bull Sale in January 1981 expressly for the purpose of producing top club calves. These bulls were top quality also as they included the Calf Champion and Reserve Calf Champion Black, The Reserve Grand Champion Black, and the Calf Champion American Bull.

This club calf sale will include 3, 4, and 5-way cross 3/8 Chianina calves out of Simmental-X, Limousin-X, Charolais, CharolaisXAngus, and Black Baldie cows.

"J.C." is relatively new to the club calf sale ring because they have been feeding their commercial calves in their own feedlot.

Although new, their experience shows success all the way. Their calves captured Champions and Reserve Champion honors at the Armstrong County 4-H and FFA show and Champion honors at the Jefferson County 4-H and FFA show. (These were the only two counties they sold calves into.)

Obviously, outstanding quality is a way of life at "J.C." and the club calf offering will include the potential for obtaining prize-winning cattle from what has been virtually and untapped source to this point.

Events are planned to begin Friday, October 21 with an "Open House" from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with sale cattle available for inspection. At 6 p.m. activities begin at the Brookville Holiday Inn including a standing leg of beef buffet dinner and country/western dancing.

The schedule for Saturday begins with coffee and doughnuts served at 9 along with inspection of sale cattle. The Charolais Sale begins at 12 noon and the First Annual Crossbred-Charolais Base Club Calf Sale will be held after the Charolais sale (approximately 3 PM).

Further information and catalogs may be obtained by contacting Les Haller, J.C. Enterprises, PO Box 90, Runggold, PA 15770. Phones: Office 814/365-5254 or Evenings 814/365-5459.

The Charolais offering at the J.C. Enterprises Oct. 22 sale will include many outstanding cows and calves from their stylish, prize-winning, well-bred herd.
