of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brommer, Conestoga R2.

Anita also won junior champion honors. This was her second year at the fair. Last year, she won reserve grand champion.

The reserve grand and reserve junior went to Desmond Kayea, 25, of Strasburg. He is the manager of a dairy farm, and this was his first year at the fair.

Senior champion honors went to Coleen Spahr.

The Jersey breed awards were swept by the Shertzer family.

Grand champion and senior champion went to Jere Shertzer, while reserve grand, reserve senior and junior champion honors went to his sister, Jenny.

Jere, 14, and Jenny, 12, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shertzer, Lancaster R6.

Winning was not a big surprise for Jere who has taken grand champion for the past five years at the fair. He owns five cows.

Jenny has also been showing for several years and has taken reserve champion honors in the past. She owns four cows.

Reserve junior honors went to Melanie Bushong.

The last and largest of the groups was the Holsteins.

Winning grand and senior

champion was Sheila Frey, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mowery Frey Jr., Willow Street.

Sheila has been showing at the fair for about nine years and won champion honors two years ago.

Sheila owns 10 cows, while her family has a milking herd of about 85.

Reserve grand, reserve senior and reserve junior went to Curt Hess, 25, Book Road, Lancaster. Curt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hess, Strasburg.

Winning junior champion honors was Bob Barley.

Judge for the show was Lew Ayres, ag teacher at Ephrata High School.
