

Bleak outlook

equity has eroded greatly over the past three years. Nationally it declined by $18 billion in 1981. In 1982 it dropped $31 billion more. Nobody knows yet what it will be in 1983 but the outlook isn't good "People with loans were in trouble last year," Tilmon said. "Because of the drought, many—including some very good farmers—are in much greater trouble this year."

American Egg Board elects Hansen, Overstreet

HARRISBURG, PA — Andy Hansen of the Hy-Cross Company has been elected to the Board of Directors of the American Egg Board by the Northeast egg industry.

Boyce Overstreet of Seaboard Foods, Inc. was elected as first alternate and will participate in AEB's committee activities.

Jim Wolf of Wolf Farms,

Stewartstown, and Glenn Smith of Pennfield Farm Eggs, Ephrata, were elected third and fourth respectively and will serve in the event that one of the top choices could not serve.

This year's balloting was conducted by the Pennsylvania Poultry Federation in conjunction with USDA and UEP.
