N.J. vegetable meeting set

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — Many vegetable growers from Pennsylvania and other East coast states will find a record number of exhibit booths at the trade show of the New Jersey Annual Vegetable Meeting.

The Atlantic City trade show, which opens Jan. 17 and closes at noon on Jan. 20, will have at least 114 booths. Orders for space are still coming in. One exhibit will feature a brush hoe from Switzerland.

Major seed companies will feature their newest varieties. Large and small machinery, irrigation — both trickle and sprinkler will be shown. There are exhibits of interest to both small and large farm operators. Plastics, containers, pesticides, fertilizers, supplies for the greenhouse, products for the roadside marketer are all part of the show.

Copies of the Advance Program, rate cards and pre-registration information can be obtained by calling W.B. Johnson at 201-932-9395.
