BALTIMORE — Milk promotion took off with a "blast" last Friday evening as the Economic Division of Dairymen, Inc., teamed with Baltimore Blast soccer team to host "milk night" at the Civic Center.

Before a sell-out crowd, Maryland Dairymen's representative Hill, of Kennedyville, kicked out the first orange and black ball in a match which eventually saw the Blast best the Pittsburgh Spirits in a 5-3 score. Highlight of the promotion was a half-time milking contest that featured three local sports celebrities and a champion (Turn to Page B29)

Ronnie Duncan, sportscaster from WJT-TV, pauses for a big smile during the milking competition at milk night.

John Patrick leads his champion Ayrshire into the ring where the milking contestants wait for their turn to compete.
