

Kopistecki makes grand showing in Swiss classes

FARM SHOW — Kathleen "Kitty" Kopistecki of Royersford, Montgomery County continued a winning streak at the Farm Show that began in the show circuit this summer. Exhibiting "DN Delegate Dainty," an aged cow, Kitty won the grand and senior champions as well as the champion udder in open class Brown Swiss judging competition.

champion in the youth division with her senior yearling entry "Titan Daintys Darling."

The William Daubert family of Pine Grove in Schuylkill County, won the premier breeder, premier exhibitor and placed first in the exhibitor's herd class with their Windmill Farm herd.

Dean and Brenda Daubert exhibited the reserve grand and reserve senior champion,

"Trotwood Victor Faith. This 6-year year sired by "Harris Hill Mary Victor," was nonunated this for year for the All-American. Faith won the reserve grand champion at the Eastern National in September.

Mike Welsh of East Berlin, York County, won the junior champion with his junior yearling entry, "Welsh Ponderosa Kings Bobi Jo." Bobi Jo won the Brown Swiss junior champion at the North American International Livestock Exhibition in Louisville, last fall.

Kerry E. and Deborah Boyd of Ephrata, Lancaster County, captured the reserve junior championship with "Keb Clayview A Telstar Sadie," a senior calf. Boyd's homebred heifer was previously named the junior champion at the 1983 Maryland State Fair, when she was only nine months old, beating heifers much older than herself. Sired by Norvic Telstar, the senior calf is one of nominations the Boyds had this year for the All American competition.

Judge John Morris is pictured here with Ronald Daubert and Trotwood Victor Faith, an aged cow, and winner of the reserve grand champion. Faith, was exhibited by Dean and Brenda Daubert and contributed to the William Daubert family winning the Brown Swiss premier breeder award.

Judge John Morris is pictured here with Brown Swiss junior champion Welsh Ponderosa Kings Bobi Jo, right exhibited by Mike Welsh, and reserve junior champion, Keb Clayview A Telstar Sadie, shown by Kerry Boyd.

- BROWN SWISS SHOW
- Junior Calf
 1 Michael A Kunkle Jonestown 2 Mike Welsh East Berlin 3 William R Daubert Pine Grove
- Youth Junior Calf
 1 Michael A Kunkle 2 W Kenneth Frame Jr Glenmoore
- Senior Calf
 1 Kerry E Boyd Ephrata, 2 Tommy & Carol
- (Turn to Page A36)

Competition strong in Ayrshire classes at Farm Show

FARM SHOW — This year's Ayrshire competition of the Farm Show represented the second largest dairy show. Numbers were up from previous years and competition was stiff. Judge John Morris, Maryland, said the quality of the animals exhibited was above his expectations. The mature cows were especially of high quality, said Moris.

E. and D. Shetterly Keefer of RD 1, Millersburg, Dauphin County, captured the grand and senior championships in open class Ayrshire judging competition at the 68th Farm Show with "Sycamore Meade Albs Brita," a 7-year-old cow.

Harold R. Kulp of 1096 Spiece Road, Pottstown, Chester County, won the reserve grand and reserve senior championships with "Eureka L Twin Klebelle," a 4-year-old cow.

The junior champion, "Sycamore Meade Locks Lovely," a senior yearling, was exhibited by Debra Shetterly of RD 1, Millersburg, Dauphin County.

William and Wilda Kline of 35 Evans City Road, Mars, Butler County, showed the reserve junior champion, "Kline Farm Amy's Mar," a senior calf.

(Turn to Page A32)

Don Shetterly is awarded the premier breeder and premier exhibitor in the Ayrshire breed by Tammy Cree and Dennis Grumbine.

Ayrshire junior champions, Debra Shetterly, right, winner of junior champion, and Heather Hernley, with her reserve junior champion.

Deavens sweep Jersey show

BY ROBIN PHILLIPS
 Staff Correspondent

FARM SHOW — The championship ribbons in the Jersey show of the Pennsylvania Farm Show extravaganza went to a sister and brother team from Cumberland County. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Deaven, R1, Newburg, Marilyn and Mark, and their aged cows, bested over 50 entries to take the highest honors in both the open and junior shows.

"She wins all the time," Marilyn exclaimed after Faithful Advancer Coleen was named Grand Champion. "Coleen" is a seven year old daughter of Golden Faithful. Her Farm Show win was preceded by many Grand Championships at local fairs, the Reserve Grand Championship at the Pennsylvania All American Jersey Show in September, and the Grand Championship at the State Junior Show.

The Reserve Grand Championship went to Stylish Blonde Katy, a six year old, Production Plus daughter, owned and shown by Mark, Marilyn's younger brother.

Ralph Turley, Mansfield, Ohio, judged the show. "The quality wasn't as deep as before, (in the individual classes) but there is alot of quality in those first two," Turley stated. "We had a good individual to start with," he concluded after selecting the champion. The Grand Champion also received the championship ribbon for the best udder in the show.

The Junior Championship went to Dietericks 1st Rosemary, a senior yearling heifer owned by Harris Brothers, and Globe Run Farm, R1, Petersburg. The heifer was shown by Keith Fisher. This is the first year the Harris Brothers are showing Jerseys. They currently own four Jerseys and house them with 150 Holsteins.

Pleasant Valley Royal Advancer was named the Reserve Junior Champion. Owned by Denise Martin, Chambersburg, this heifer is a daughter of Advancer Sleeping Milestone. The junior yearling was shown by Denise's brother, Doug. The pair went on to win the Junior Championship in the Junior Show with the senior yearling heifer of Kathy Reeve, R3, Hanover,

(Turn to Page A36)

Karla Martin holds the premier exhibitor plaque her family won exhibiting their Pleasant Valley Jerseys at the Farm Show. Family members are, from left, Ruth, Lester, Doug, Karla, and Tina.

The grand and reserve grand champions in Jersey competition were exhibited by the brother and sister team of Marilyn and Mark Deaven, shown here with Jersey Judge Ralph Turley.