The Partners in Productivity Program at your Allis-Chalmers dealer is a must for any farmer interested in getting the latest on the most efficient line of farm equipment going today.

You didn't get where you are today by passing up opportunities to grow and profit. Your success is based on opportunities seized. And our success is based on making opportunities available - opening the door to higher profitability through more efficient equipment. That's what makes us partners in productivity.

This is your opportunity to learn, point by point, how today's more efficient line of Allis-Chalmers equipment can make a difference on your farm. It's also your chance to win the free use of a new Allis-Chalmers tractor through June 29, 1984, or a 6 month subscription to Agri-Star, the electronic information system.

The Partners in Productivity Program — a fact-filled forum in efficiency that could lead to higher earnings for years to come. Be there. See your dealer for dates.

Ag Day events listed

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A variety of Agriculture Day activities - led by Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block, honorary chairman of the national observance, and his wife, Sue - will be conducted in Washington, D.C., on March 20 by the National Agriculture Day Steering Committee.

Agriculture Day, the first day of spring, has been authorized as an official national observance every year since 1981, by a joint resolution of Congress and a presidential proclamation. It was first celebrated in 1973 and has grown since then to include thousands of events at the state and community level nationwide.

Mrs. Block will host a mid-morning news conference and reception March 20 for the new "Miss Agriculture" at the Department of Agriculture.

The finalists will be interviewed March 16, the start of Agriculture Week, by Christina M. Wilson, Secretary Block's public-liaison assistant; Marsha Herndon of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Laura Heuser, a Michigan farm wife; James Robertson, Monsanto Co., and Jam Westmoreland, Pfizer, Inc.

Secretary Block will attend and speak at a National Press Club luncheon March 20, beginning with a reception at noon.

The evening of the 20th, members of Congress and the Cabinet, along with state and national agricultural organization leaders, will attend a "Taste of the Country" barbeque/reception on the patio at the USDA Administration Building, featuring both Texas- and North Carolina- style barbeque and an array of other foods to be enjoyed while the "Bluegrass Bureaucrats" band entertains. Breads for the reception are being contributed by U.S. Wheat Associates; potato chips and other snacks, by Frito-Lay, Inc., and flowers, through SAF/The Center for Commercial Floriculture.
