

Montgomery Co. FFA honors members

LIMERICK — On Wednesday, March 21, the Western Montgomery County Future Farmers of America held its annual parent/member banquet.

Thirty FFA members and their parents attended the banquet.

Superintendents and school board members from the Spring-Ford, Upper Perkiomen and Pottsgrove School Districts were also present.

After a delicious family-style ham and roast beef dinner, the evening's special guest speaker, Mr. Dave Blank, Pennsylvania State Association of FFA treasurer from Parkesburg spoke about the number of opportunities available to the FFA members. He later stressed the importance of capturing those opportunities and using them to the best advantage.

Later in the evening vocational Agriculture teacher, Mr. Roger Michelone, Horticulture/Landscaping teacher, Mr. Rober Mutschler, and Edward Fabian, a friend of the FFA, presented the annual Chapter awards.
