

Penny Barner selected SUN Area Dairy Princess

1984 Perry County Dairy Princess Nancy Dum; first alternate Theresa Kling, and second alternate Jo Ann O'Toole will represent Perry County's dairy industry in the coming year.

Nancy Dum wears Perry Co. Dairy Princess crown

NEWPORT — Nancy Dum was crowned the 1984 Perry County Dairy Princess at the recent Heritage Days Festival in Newport. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dum of Elliottsburg. First alternate was Theresa Kling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Kling. JoAnn O'Toole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Toole, was chosen as second alternate.

Nancy will now represent Perry County at the state pageant in late September, where over 40 young ladies will be trying for the title of Pennsylvania Dairy Princess. In addition, she will begin a busy year promoting the dairy industry through appearances at schools, supermarkets, farm and civic meetings, and parades, as well as through the radio, television, and newspaper media.

Co-chairpersons of the Dairy Princess Committee were Gladys Albright and Jane Benner. Other committee chairmen were: Gladys Albright, Nancy Neely, Robert Gabel, Gail Kriebel, Mr. and Mrs. David Roth, Sr., Jackie Brubaker, and Kimberly Kriebel.

The official judges for the pageant were Sue Beshore, New Cumberland; Ann Kopp, Middletown; and Kenneth Davis, Carlisle.

Official escorts for the contestants were Clifton Brubaker,

Angie Colyer

Angie Colyer crowned Juniata Dairy Princess

McALISTERVILLE — Angie Colyer was crowned 1984 Juniata County Dairy Princess last Saturday evening during a pageant held at the McAlisterville Community Park. (Turn to Page B17)

LEWISBURG, Pa. — SUN Area Dairy Princess for 1984-85, Penny Barner, representing Northumberland, Montour, Snyder, Union Counties, was crowned during a pageant on Saturday, June 16 at Susquehanna Valley Mall. Penny is the 16-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barner, Sr., R1, Port Trevorton.

Penny was crowned before a capacity crowd in Boscov's Auditorium, by 1983 Dairy Princess Janell Mort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bechtel from R1 Klingerstown. The alternate princess in the contest was Judi Troxell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Troxell, R1 Middleburg.

The new SUN Area Dairy Princess, who was also named "Miss Congeniality" during the pageant, will spend much of her reign traveling throughout the multi-county area, attending public functions and promotional events on behalf of Pennsylvania's 15,500 dairymen.

The Dairy Princess Contest climaxes a full week of promotional activities which featured the theme of "Milk-Milk's Got More." Special activities featured on Saturday were the serving of milk punch, cheese and popcorn with real butter. A calf petting display and ice cream eating contest were highlights of the day's activities. Several thousand individuals viewed the various dairy industry displays featured at the Susquehanna Valley Mall during "Dairy Week", June 11-16.

Penny will represent the SUN Area in the state pageant to be held in Harrisburg in September. During her year's reign, Penny will be available to meet with any groups interested in learning more about Pennsylvania's leading farm industry which produces more than four billion quarts of milk each year.

1984-85 SUN Area Dairy Princess and her alternate, Judi Troxell, will be representing the dairy industry throughout the coming year.

Computerized Dairy Farm Management Systems Codatron The name alone says High Tech To be successful in dairying today you know how important it is to be in complete control of your feeding program and to have all the information possible on each and every cow in your herd That's why Westfalia has developed the finest dairy computer system available anywhere

The system is quality built from its rugged feeding stall to its state-of-the-art electronics It's basically foolproof because everything is micro processor controlled Now reports of herd condition and performance are available at your fingertips Ration adjustments can be made quickly and easily You'll be alerted to problem cows fast

And that's not all The Codatron is designed for expansion into parlor milk data functions and home computer interfacing And of course the Codatron is backed by the ever expanding Westfalia sales and service network nationwide

The story behind the design: Now the Codatron System will help you attain full control over your dairy operation

The Codatron central memory control center installs easily in your office or home Here you'll be able to call up herd information at the push of the buttons on Codatron's simple and easy-to-understand control panel The Codatron Printer prints out large easy-to-read reports

Westfalia CODATRON Maximizes milk production and

Let Us Show You The Advantages Of Westfalia's Codatron Computerized Feeding System Recently Installed At The Randy Stoltzfus Farm, Mt. Joy, Currently Milking Over 100 Cows. This System Is Set-Up For 200 Cow Herd With 8 Feed Stalls Available. See The Feed Dispenser That Outperforms Them All!

Model F26 Management reports 1. Daily automatic cow feed exception 2. Individual cow check listing 3. Feed station usage/feed bin monitor

FISHER & THOMAS

Amos Fisher
717-687-8871