

Four York Co. 4-H'ers win state awards

UNIVERSITY PARK — Four York County 4-H'ers have received awards in the 1984 4-H National Awards Program and are eligible to attend National 4-H Congress in Chicago on Nov. 25 to 29.

Carroll L. Howes, associate 4-H youth program director at Penn State University, who announced the award selection, said the 4-H'ers were judged on the basis of project work, leadership ability and participation in county and state activities.

The winners were selected from among the more than 145,000 youth who annually take part in the extension service 4-H program.

Hugh Spahr, of Dover, received the state Food Conservation and Safety award. The son of Richard and Darlene Spahr, he is a freshman at Dover Area High School. He has been a 4-H member for seven years.

A member of the Davidsburg 4-H club, he served as secretary and song leader. He also assisted with club activities and events as a teen leader.

Spahr has completed projects in yeast breads and pet care and participated in the 4-H Fair, Demonstration Days, State Days and Regional Nights.

Ann Hutschenreuter, of Airville, received the state Citizenship award. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutschenreuter, she is a senior at Red Lion Area High School. She has been a 4-H'er for eight years.

A member of the Airville 4-H club, she served as secretary and historian. She also assisted with
