It's recognizing farmer cooperatives for their very special part in your success. Whether its job is production, processing, or marketing, your cooperative is a significant source of strength. And the "cooperative spirit" is a real key to accomplishments far beyond what you'd ever expect to achieve alone. We're proud of the fact that our area's agriculture owes so much to the efforts of cooperatives, including a farmer-owned and farmer-controlled financial cooperative like us. Which makes Cooperative Month a good month to remind you that we always speak your language.
