

HAPPY HOLIDAYS...

... THE COST OF EFFICIENCY JUST WENT DOWN!

Act Now To Get The Best... For Less

If your 1985 plans include the purchase of a new Harvestore® forage structure or a new Slurrystore® system... your participating authorized independent Harvestore® system dealer has some exciting news.

Place your firm order now for delivery next spring, and he'll pass on attractive factory savings in addition to any early-delivery discount you may earn.

The total price reduction can be substantial, and that could make it easier to increase your farm's efficiency — a lot easier.

Sound too good to be true? There's no catch, because by placing your order well in advance you'll help A.O. Smith Harvestore® Products, Inc. keep down manufacturing costs by building your structure to order. We'll pass those savings on — it's that simple!*

Your firm order will save us inventory carrying costs. We'll also save from improved production scheduling, and by more cost efficient purchasing of raw materials.

Factory discounts decline daily, so the sooner you order — the more you'll save.

A limited number of structures already in factory inventory also qualify for the discount, so if you need prompt delivery of your new structure ask your authorized independent Harvestore® system dealer to

What an opportunity — the chance to roll back the cost of improving the way you farm! But you must act quickly to benefit from this limited offer. Call your participating dealer for details — today!
