

Dauphin Co. to select dairy princess

HARRISBURG — To cap off another June Dairy Month in the Capitol City, two Middletown girls will compete for the Dauphin County dairy princess crown and banner on Friday evening, June 28 at 8 p.m.

The pageant will be held in room 218 of the Lower Paxton Township Building and will be followed by an ice cream social.

Contestant Teresa Hepner, 18, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hepner of 125 Beechwood Drive, Middletown. Teresa is a 1985 graduate of Middletown High School with career interests in the dairy industry. She is the president of the Lower Dauphin 4-H Dairy Club and has two head of Jersey cattle as projects. She is employed as Bryncoed Jersey farm near Middletown. She also coaches a girl's softball team and is a member of Seven Sorrows Catholic Church.

Patti Lytle is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lytle, Jr. of 915 E. Harrisburg Pike, Middletown. She will be a senior at Lower Dauphin High School where she is active in the ski club and the longitudinal studies group. Patti also is a member of the Lower Dauphin Dairy Club with a Holstein calf as a project. The Lytles milk 100 head of Holstein cattle.

The public is invited to help the Dauphin County Dairy Princess April Lafferty welcome the new dairy princess. The winner and her alternate will represent the Dauphin County dairy industry in promoting the many delicious dairy products available to the consumer.

HUNTINGDON — Tina Shultz of James Creek was recently crowned 1985 Huntingdon County dairy princess during the annual pageant at Shaver's Creek Fireman's Park.

Wanda Love, Shirleysburg, and Lisa McMahon, Petersburg, were named equal alternates.

Tina, the daughter of William and Ruby Shultz, received her crown from last year's princess Mary Ann Keith. Tina will be a senior this fall at Huntingdon Area High School. After graduation, she plans to attend college to major in agriculture.

Tina is president of the 4-H Dairy Club, secretary of the 4-H County Council, a member of the 4-H Lamb and Swine Clubs and of the United Church of Christ youth group and choir.

Alternate princess Wanda Love is the daughter of Garry and Darlene Love. She is a graduate of Mount Union Area High School and was a member of the band, county band and her church youth group.

Alternate princess Lisa McMahon is the daughter of Hilda McMahon. She is a graduate of Juniata Valley High School and plans to attend Williamsport Community College to major in communications.

Lisa's activities included track, cheerleading, yearbook, PFA youth representative, chorus, senior class secretary and the church worship team.

1984 dairy princess Mary Ann Keith spoke of her year's activities. In two weeks, Mary Ann will go to Thailand as an exchange student.

Emil Peters, a dairy farmer from Centre County served as master of ceremonies. Judges for the event were Clarence Cornman Jr., a classifier for the Holstein Association; Vivian Moon, coordinator of dietetic programs for Williamsport Community College; and Lori Snider, a member of the Bedford County Dairy Promotion Committee.

WORKAHOLICS.

Nothing works harder than a Kubota B-Series tractor. And there are seven different B-Series models, ranging from 12 to 19 horsepower.

With that much variety, you're sure to find one that meets your needs. Plowing, spraying, hauling, tilling, mowing and more. There's a Kubota just right for the job.

You can also choose features to make the work go easier. Like a hydrostatic transmission, 3-point hitch, 2-speed live mid or rear PTO or 4-wheel drive.

So if you're looking for a hard worker, look no further than a Kubota B-Series tractor.
