Red & White directors

Members of the Penn-York Red and White Dairy Cattle Assoc. re-elected three directors during last Saturday's field day at Ken Myer's Myerose Farm, Elizabethtown. Emil Peters (left), Port Matilda; Kathy Smith, Dundee, N.Y.; and Ken Myer received the group's vote of confidence.

In addition to a short business meeting, other Red and White field day activities included a judging contest and a short presentation by Dr. Alan McCauley, of Em-Tran. Winner of the judging contest was Barry Donmoyer of Annville. He received five units of Jon-Red from Cliff Gibble, a representative of Select Sires.

AJCC promotes young sire sampling

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The American Jersey Cattle Club is working to make sure young sire sampling pays. Eugene P. Barton, AJCC Superintendent of Records, recently announced over $800 in performance program credits to owners of daughters of young sires nominated in the AJCC Young Sire Program.

When a young bull entered in the AJCC Young Sire Program receives his first USDA Sire Summary, the AJCC provides one free year's enrollment in the Total Performance Evaluation program for each of his daughters with usable DHI production information. These credits, equalling $5 per cow, went to 111 herd owners across the country.

Also, daughters of AJCC Young Sire Program nominees are registered at half price if they are recorded before they are six months old and before their sire reaches 32 months of age. This encourages early sampling of approved young sires and accurate identification of their daughters.

Barton also stated that early sampling of selected young sires will increase the number of superior proven bulls available through AI studs. Those herds sampling young sires are also the first to own daughters of highly plus proven, popular AI sires.
