Adams County 4-H'ers compete at Fashion Revue

YORK SPRINGS — Jackie King, York Springs, recently received a gold ribbon at the Capital Region 4-H Fashion Revue held July 24 at the Cumberland Valley High School.

As a gold ribbon winner, she will be one of eight 4-H'ers to represent the region at the State Fashion Revue, Aug. 6 at the Penn State University Park Campus. The Revue will take place during State 4-H Achievement Days. One of forty-eight 4-H'ers from seven counties in the senior division of Fashion Revue, she will also receive a medal of honor and a certificate of participation.

Jackie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale King. She modeled a designed inspired dress in lavender polyester.

In the honors group were Noel King, York Springs; Lela Mummert, East Berlin; and Tina Renoll, Aspers. These senior participants received blue ribbons. Also taking part in this event from Adams County were Beth Bishop and Jennifer Shetter from Gettysburg.

In the junior section, Renee Mickey of East Berlin received honors with a blue ribbon. Other junior models included Kathleen Grim, East Berlin; Tanya Petry, York Springs; Jackie Sterner, Gettysburg; and Gayle Weant, Littlestown.

The 4-H'ers made the outfits they modeled as part of the 4-H clothing projects. Along with increasing their skills in clothing construction, they learned about wardrobe selection, color-coordination, the importance of good posture, and other aspects of grooming.
