

Lebanon County honors 4-H leaders

LEBANON — Leaders of Lebanon County 4-H clubs were honored recently at the county's annual 4-H Recognition Dinner held at the Friendship Fire Hall in Lebanon. Each leader received a certificate, 4-H license plate, and 4-

H stickers. Pins were given to leaders with one, five, 10 and 15 years of 4-H leadership.

Lebanon County 4-H's many financial supporters were also recognized by finance committee members Jack Reed and Jim

Connor

Larissa Smith, 4-H ambassador, presented a slide show of her trip to Japan. As an ambassador, Larissa spent six weeks with a Japanese family and experiencing their culture. A presentation by Gary Smith from the Pennsylvania Game Commission on blue birds concluded the program.

Following the recognition ceremony and program, the county Leader's Organization held a business meeting and elected new officers. Newly elected officers for 1985-86 are Gail Shiner, president; Henry Smith, vice president; Fran Bushong, secretary; Kay Burkhart, treasurer; and Michelle Noll, representative (one year term).
