Good Food all Day

AUCTIONEER NOTE: Romanowski has been a name in trade that is a living legend in Long Island potato land. Through three generations they purchased and continuously replaced and upgraded with real fine equipment.

Henry has a preventative maintenance program that is beyond reproach. Most of the equipment is in meticulous condition. "The kind often sought, but seldom found," and worth a trip from most anywhere to buy it.

Looking forward to visiting with folks from near and far to see and participate in the AUCTION OF THE AUCTION.

AUCTIONEER NOTE:

The Zanieski family farmed here in Cutchogue since the turn of the century. Through their love and dedication for farming, they have continuously accumulated and upgraded their equipment. Their equipment is in beautiful condition because it has only worked in the rich, porous, easily tilled soil that predominates this area.

Take the time to come, see and buy, all in one day which has taken this fine family a century to build.
